Re: Ms Jane Doe

To whom it may concern

I understand that Ms Jane Doe wishes to access legal aid for a family dispute as a victim of domestic violence. For this reason, I have been asked to provide a letter in accordance with regulation 33 and schedule 1 of the Civil Legal Aid (Procedure) Regulations 2012 (as amended).

I can confirm that our organisation is situated in England and Wales and has been operating for an uninterrupted period of six months or more.

I can confirm that we have provided Ms Doe support in relation to their needs as a victim, or person at risk of domestic violence.

In my reasonable professional judgement Ms Doe was a victim, or a person at risk of domestic violence.

The matters I have relied upon to support that judgement are: disclosures surrounding emotional, physical and psychological abuse with coercive and controlling behaviour.

We have provided Ms Doe with the following support: risk assessment, safety planning and referrals for emotional support.

Ms Doe needed this support because she is a victim, or a person at risk of domestic abuse from her ex-partner.

Yours faithfully,

Sam Taylor
