To whom it may concern

I understand that Joe Bloggs wishes to access legal aid for a family dispute as a victim of domestic violence. For this reason, I have been asked to provide a letter in accordance with regulation 33 and schedule 1 of the Civil Legal Aid (Procedure) Regulations 2012 (as amended).

I can confirm that our organisation is situated in England and Wales and has been operating for an uninterrupted period of six months or more.

I can confirm that we have provided Joe Bloggs with support in relation to their needs as a victim, or a person at risk, of domestic violence.

In my reasonable professional judgement, Joe Bloggs is, or is at risk of being, a victim of domestic violence.

The matters I have relied upon to support that judgement are; Refuge space being granted for Joe and their son following a referral taken and DASH score being 12 and current statements being given to the police in regards to the abuse that has happened, the hope of a court date and possible conviction for the perpetrator.

We have provided Joe Bloggs the following support: Support for health concerns and registering with GP, support to report the crimes and attend the station to give a statement, Domestic Violence education.

Joe Bloggs needed this support because: They fled their home due to fear for their life. Joe is willing to accept support in other areas such as emotional wellbeing.
