Re: Jane Doe

To whom it may concern

I understand that Jane Doe wishes to access legal aid for a family dispute as a victim of domestic violence. For this reason, I have been asked to provide a letter in accordance with regulation 33 and schedule 1 of the Civil Legal Aid (Procedure) Regulations 2012 (as amended).

I can confirm that our organisation is situated in England and Wales and has been operating for an uninterrupted period of six months or more.

I can confirm that we have provided Jane Doe with support in relation to their needs as a victim, or a person at risk, of domestic violence.

In my reasonable professional judgement Jane Doe is, or is at risk of being, a victim of domestic violence.

The matters I have relied upon to support that judgement are: Jane's disclosures to me of emotional, physical and psychological abuse by her ex-partner, John Doe, including coercive and controlling behaviour, and the referral from her GP describing injuries she reported.

We have provided the following support: safety planning, signposting to relevant agencies, advocacy and ongoing support and guidance.

Jane Doe need this support because they have been in an abusive relationship and requires professional support and guidance to end the cycle of abuse.

Yours faithfully,
